

Who's in charge here?

Color me!

Just as our country has leaders like the President, our City has its own leaders. The Mayor and City Council set the rules that make Greensboro a great place to live.

You can even watch them work! The City Council meets twice each month, on the first and third Tuesdays at 6 pm in the City Council Chamber in the Melvin Municipal Office Building, 300 West Washington Street.

You can come to the meetings, or you can watch them on TV! The meetings are always shown on Greensboro Cable Channel 13.

George Washington was born on February 22, 1732 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. He served as the first president of the United States, from 1789-1797. He died on December 4, 1799, nine years before the town of "Greensborough" came to life.

If you were in charge of Greensboro, what would you do?
